

Annual Report on Equality and Diversity Work in the British Ecological Society: 2016

Background

The 2015-2019 British Ecological Society (BES) Strategic Plan includes a goal is to increase the diversity of those doing ecology. Initial scoping work was done by an Equality and Diversity Task and Finish Group which developed a set of recommendations during 2015 and these were accepted by BES Council in December that year.

This report details the work completed during 2016 and priorities for 2017.

Key outputs for 2016

The key outputs from the E&D work during the last year include:

1. Agreement by BES Council of an E&D Action Plan for 2016
2. Establishment of an Equality and Diversity Working Group, recruited from the BES membership through an open call, which meets twice a year and reports directly to BES Council. The remit of the EDWG is to develop and oversee the delivery of the Society's equality and diversity work. Equality and diversity is something that should be embedded into every operation of the BES and the EDWG is responsible for ensuring that happens. The Society's equality and diversity work covers both its operation as a learned society and membership organisation, and as an employer of staff. The EDWG covers both these areas.
3. Development of an E&D statement published on the BES website which includes the commitment to report annually.
4. Introduction of E&D monitoring forms for membership and grants, and the collection of E&D data on BES Committee makeup and Journal Associate Editors.
5. Review of BES prize criteria to ensure awarding criteria are clearly articulated.
6. Launch and awarding of the first BES Equality and Diversity Champion prize.
7. Development and delivery of regular E&D features in the Bulletin.
8. Introduction of E&D guidelines for Committees, Working Groups and Special Interest Groups.
9. Development of a code of conduct for BES conferences.
10. Inclusion of equality and diversity criteria in the selection of Annual Meeting thematic topic proposals.
11. Review of the recruitment processes for paid and unpaid positions to ensure they are fair, open and transparent.
12. Introduction of unconscious bias training for those doing paid and unpaid work for the BES.

Data gathered

Data on BES members, Committee members and Associate Editors is given in Appendix 1. Data on grant applicants will be available in 2017. The table below compares some of the BES member data with that published by Higher Education Statistics Agency (HESA) for students and academic staff.

HESA do not make publically available data on sexual orientation. The EDWG is still considering what data should form the baseline for comparison with the BES data but the HESA data is a starting point.

Equality and Diversity Characteristics	BES Member data	HESA Student Data*	HESA Academic Staff Data~
Female	46%	56%	45%
Male	54%	44%	55%
White	83%	77%	86%
Black	4%	7%	2%
Asian	6%	11%	9%

Priorities for 2017

Priorities for the EDWG in 2017 include:

- Continuing to gather E&D data on the BES and on the academic community,
- Analysis of data,
- Increased focus on the ethnic and socio-economic elements of diversity.
